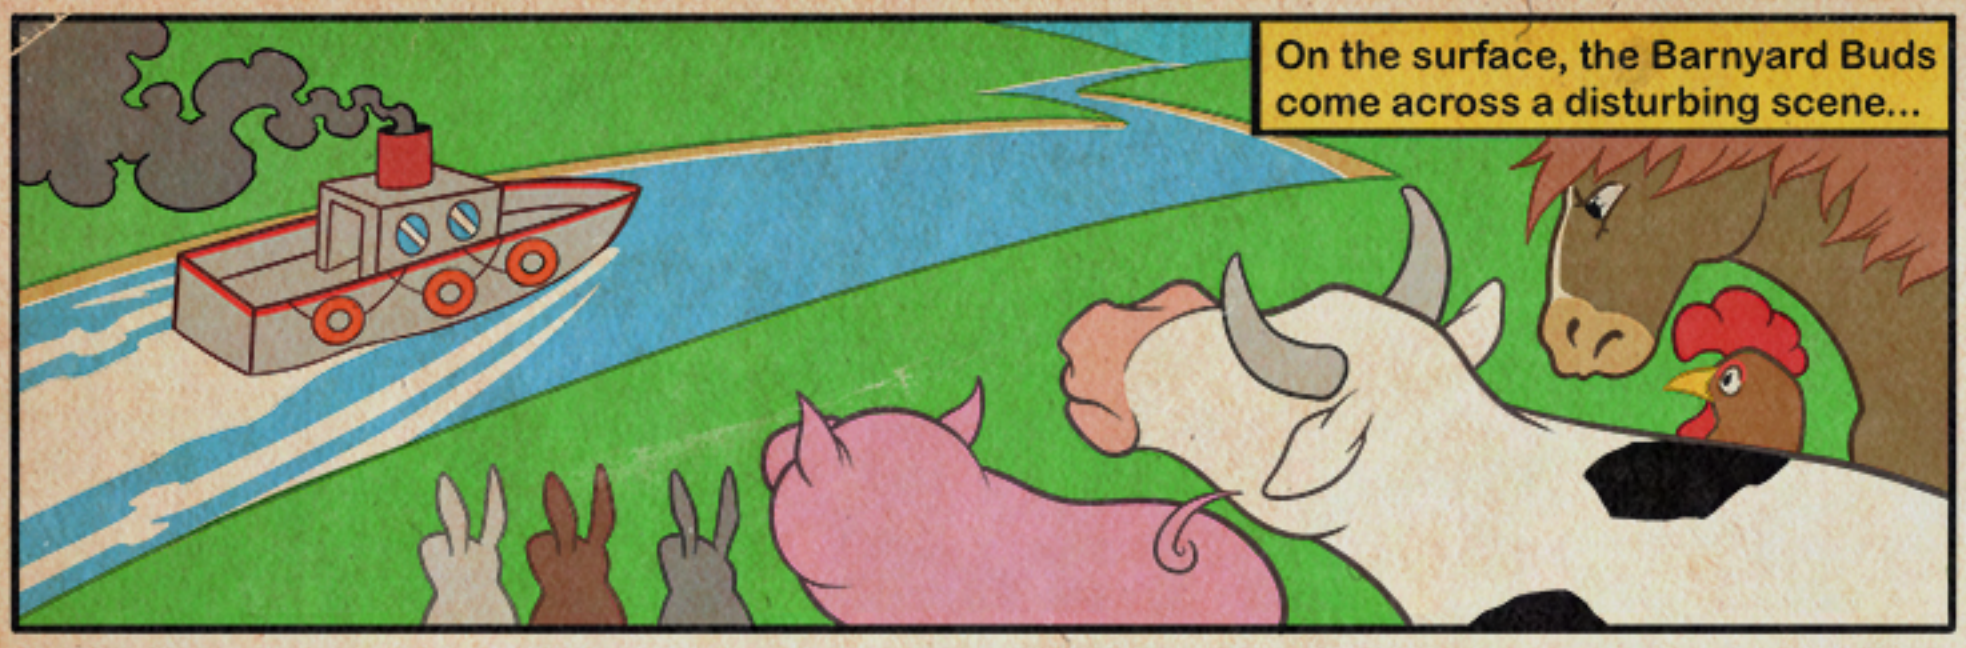
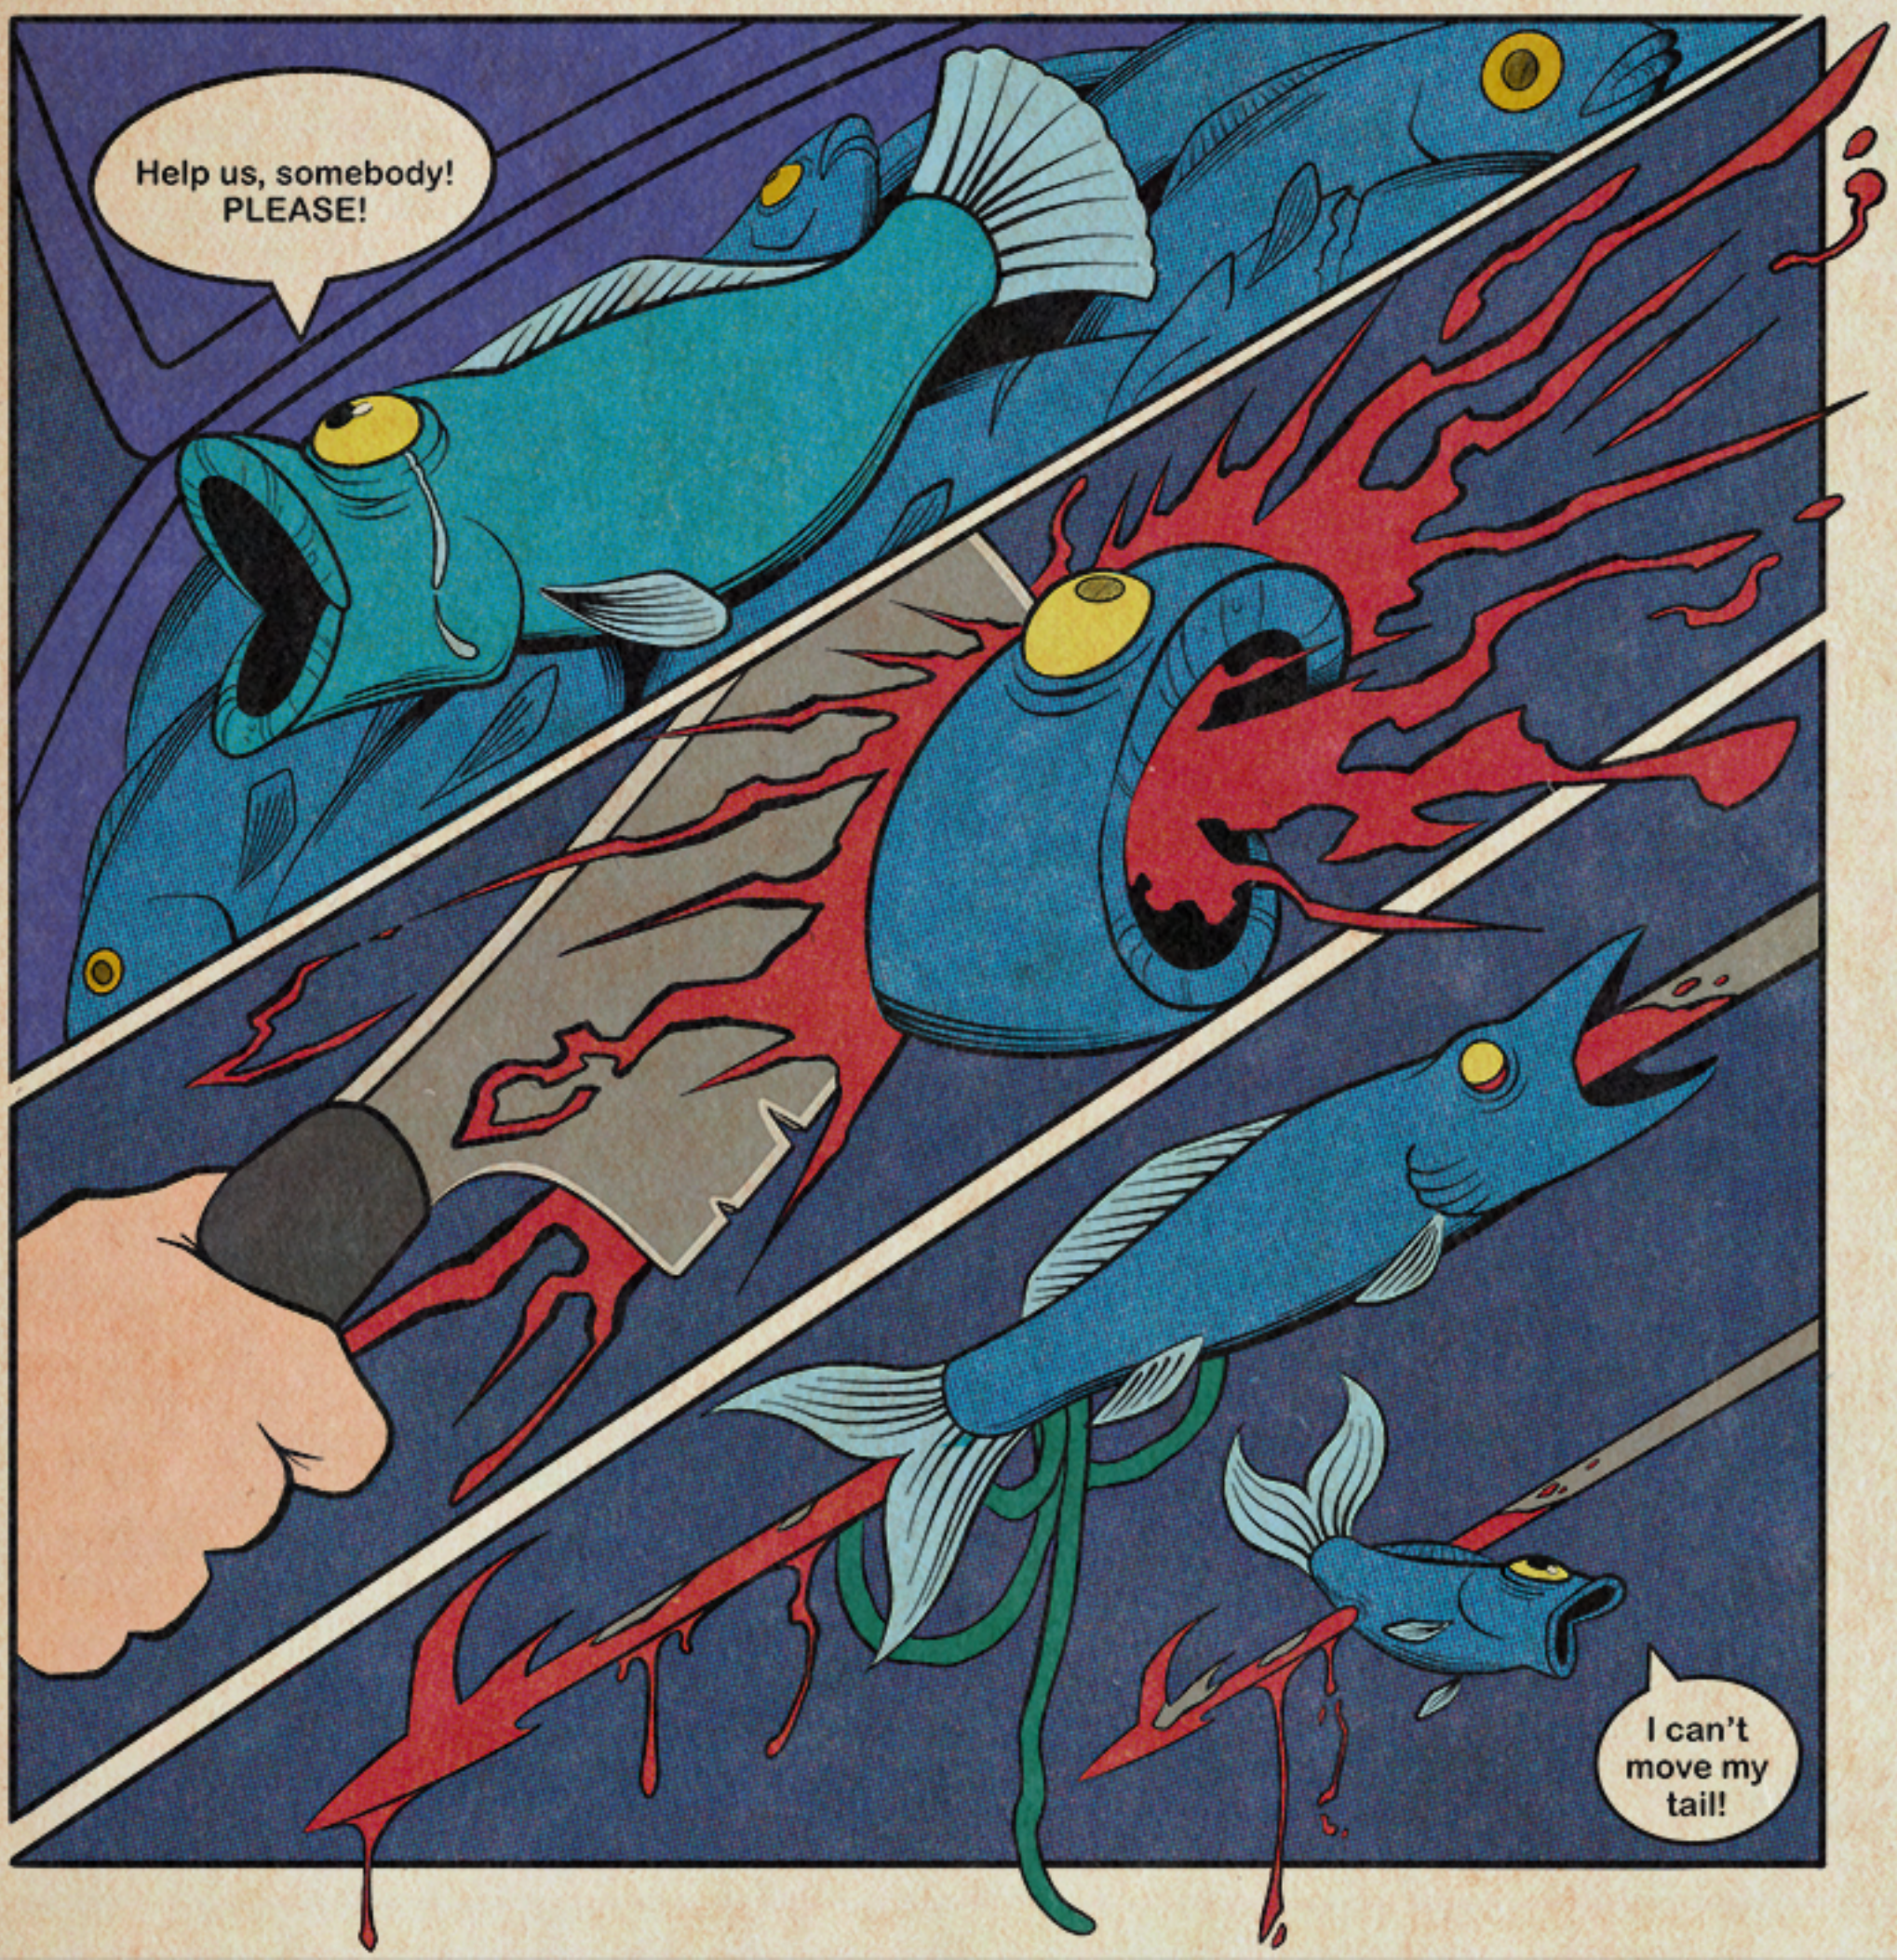
Meanwhile, Sammy the Surly Salmon was on his way to visit Mrs. Bass and her new babies when he noticed that not a single fish was to be seen in the river. As he swam on, Sammy began to notice an odd metallic smell in the water...
Mrs. Bass?
Grumpy Grouper?
OH NO! THEY'RE BACK!



On the surface, the Barnyard Buds come across a disturbing scene...

DEAR GOD.



Help us, somebody! PLEASE!
I can't move my tail!

WE HAVE TO SAVE THEM!!!

Quick! We have to dump the coolers !!!
Thank you my friends.
Your efforts were... valiant indeed. But now I must... sift through these remains and search for any survivors.

Just as the buds celebrate their victory, a new problem looms on the horizon.

Look out! Waterfall ahead!

Everyone jump out! We have to mooooove!

This is baaaaaaad.

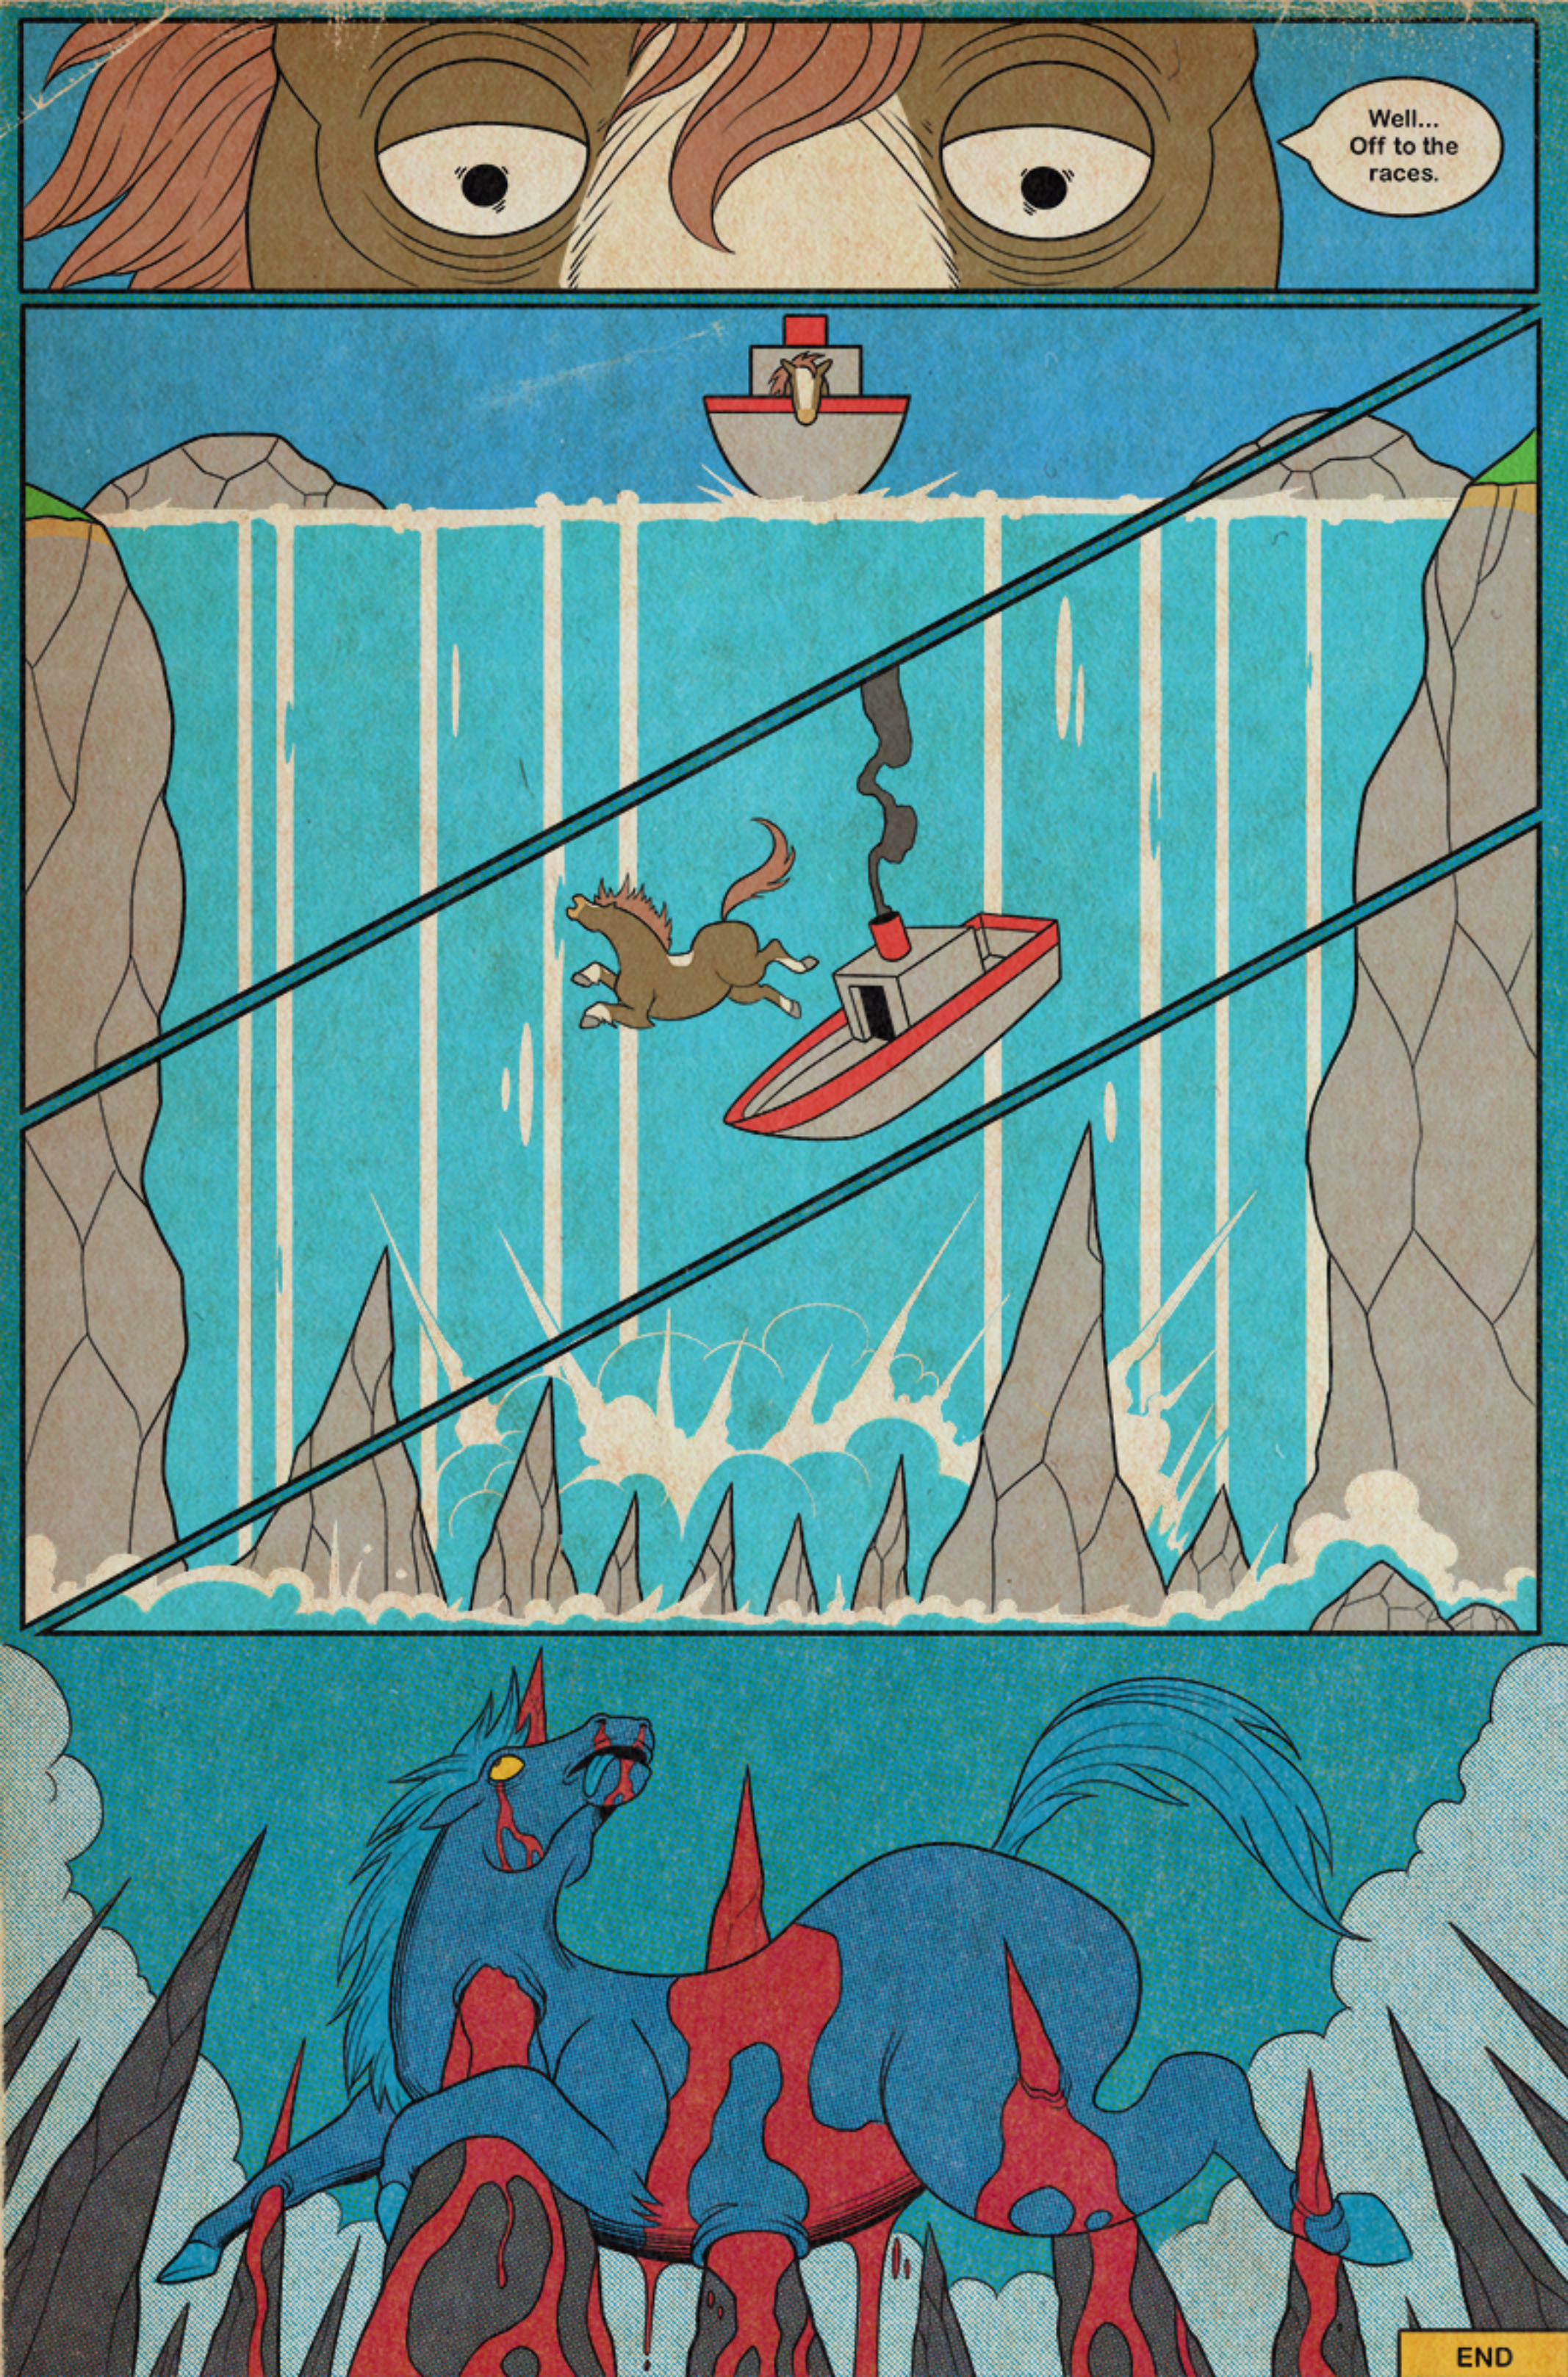
Jump, Borace!

You have to jump right now, kid. It's the only way out.

I c-c-c-can't. I'm too s-s-s-scared.

Sure thing.

Hey! Put me down!



Well... Off to the races.
